COLLEGE LEVEL EXAMINATION PROGRAM CREDIT

The following guidelines have been established for consideration of College Level Examination Program scores. Exemption credit is awarded for knowledge demonstrated as a result of non-traditional learning experience. The CLEP tests listed below may be taken and credit will be awarded provided the appropriate scores are attained. It is the student's responsibility to request his/her official CLEP scores be sent to Student Records. The Registrar's office will evaluate and awarded the appropriate credit.

CLEP examinations accepted for course credit and the amount of credit awarded are subject to change without notice.
