MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING

You are responsible for reading and understanding the content of this document.

WITHDRAWING FROM CLASSES

- If you withdraw from your classes, you will likely owe money to the college and possibly to the Department of Education. (Contact Financial Aid before you withdraw from any classes.)
- If you owe money as a result of withdrawing from classes, you will not be able to use financial aid at any college including CCTC until the debt is paid.
- You may read more information about withdrawing from classes in the financial aid section of our website at <http://www.cctech.edu/financialsvcs.htm> or contact the Financial Aid Office at 803-778-7831 ext. 431 and ask to speak to a Counselor.

Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP)

- You must maintain SAP to continue receiving financial aid.
- Maintaining SAP consists of completing at least 67% of coursework attempted and maintaining a cumulative 2.0 GPA.
- You may read more information about SAP on the Financial Aid section of our website at <http://www.cctech.edu/financialsvcs/461.htm> or contact the Financial Aid Office at 803-778-1961 ext. 431 and ask to speak to a Counselor.

Developmental Studies Classes (DVS)

If you have taken (completed or attempted) more than 30 credit hours of DVS classes, you are not eligible to receive financial aid for any additional DVS Classes. For financial aid purposes, DVS classes end in 031, 032, and/or 100.

Unless we hear from you, we will assume that you understand all parts of this Memorandum of Understanding. If you have any questions concerning this document, please call Financial Aid at 803-778-7831 Ext. 431
