Veteran Residency Verification Document

South Carolina has enacted legislation that enables compliance of public colleges and universities with Section 702 of the Veterans Access, Choice and Accountability Act of 2014. The statutory reference for the relevant provisions is Section 59-112-50(C) of the South Carolina Code of Laws. This provision allows for certain Veteran students utilizing GI-Bill Benefits to be charged in-state tuition. Completion of this form and required documentation must be provided before any residency changes will be made for your enrollment period.
